CONCLUDING REMARKS

DR. KING: I think, before we close, I just wanted to thank – and I wanted to, above all, thank Ms. Jennings for a marvelous presentation.

(Applause.)

But we had a tremendous student help on this conference, which started on Thursday afternoon, and went through until tonight: Matthew Ross, David Greenspan, Melissa Kassier, Emily Goetz, Mark Pustay, Kevin Kunzendorf, Alexander McClean, and Eric Landen, together with Kate Johnson, all were marvelous, tremendous helps to us. Let's give them a round of applause.

(Applause.)

And the people who helped me with the program were Jon Fried – He is not unknown to you. I think he had something to do with your coming tonight – Dick Cunningham of Washington, Mike Robinson and Jim McIlroy, and also I want to thank again Rocco Delvecchio and George Costaris of the Consul in Detroit. They were with us all the way. Julie Kraus, my secretary, is not here. She is a Program Coordinator. She did an excellent job. But my right hand is, he is sitting up there, Dan Ujcz, will you stand up?

(Applause.)

Well, you were marvelous. Nothing less; nothing more. You were just wonderful tonight.

HON. MARLENE JENNINGS: Thank you.

DR. KING: And we thank you again. Come back again.

HON. MARLENE JENNINGS: Thank you, I will. You won't be able to get rid of me.

DR. KING: After you get that whole thing organized in Washington, we want a full report.

HON. MARLENE JENNINGS: Thank you.

(Applause.)

DR. KING: You were great.

(Conference concluded at 9:15PM April 16, 2005.)
