UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
WASHINGTON, D. C. , 20001

NOTICE TO U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGES

Because of a temporary shortage of personnel in the Civil Dockets Division, our ability to timely route pleadings to you has been affected. The attached pleading is being routed to you without a document number and without its final pre-screening by the docket clerk. If, upon examination, we discover a reason to reject the pleading, we will provide you with a copy of the return document letter within two days indicating the reason for the return. We are working on a rapid resolution to this temporary situation.

The attached pleadings are acceptable and are entered in the computer.
