ALUMNI LUNCHEONS Aug. 10 and Sept. 21

There will be a WRU Law Alumni luncheon, Wednesday noon, Aug. 10, 1966, at Hotel Queen Elizabeth (Gallerie #3), Montreal, Quebec, Canada. The luncheon will be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the American Bar Association. Tickets will be available at the door.

Luncheon Committee: Willard Barry, Chairman; Myron W. Ulrich; Mrs. Myron W. Ulrich.

Also Wednesday noon, Sept. 21, 1966—California State Bar meeting, Disneyland Hotel, Anaheim. Dean Toepfer will be present. Tickets will be available at the door.

was reached before June 30, 1966, the end of the University's fiscal year. The Law Alumni Fund is becoming increasingly important in meeting the basic needs of the School and has been directly responsible for providing much of the monies needed for scholarship and student aid. As we attract more top students, we must continue to maintain a position of being able to hold these highly qualified young men and women.

Vital to the health and financial well-being of any private institution of higher learning are the interest, enthusiasm and loyal support of its alumni.

In areas of library, equipment and faculty needs, the Alumni Fund has been of great value. The Law School is moving ahead rapidly and following growth plans that include increasing the number of full-time faculty. There will be 14 such men in September of this year. The Alumni Fund also helps maintain the Alumni Association ($2 of each gift) and includes a subscription to the Western Reserve Law Review.

The average gift is close to $45, a record for this fund.

Most significant is the record alumni participation in this year's Law Fund.

Thanks to the wonderful support of alumni over the past several years, our Law School has overcome many crises and can again hold its head up as a true leader among law schools. We do not believe any school could accomplish more than the following in one year:

1—Obtain the services of a man of the caliber of Louis A. Toepfer of Harvard as our new dean.

2—Undertake and complete the Bok report, a comprehensive study and analysis, by top professional men, on the status of the school, with recommendations on all phases of its future activities and with the approval of the school officials on every major point.

3—Bring a new law school building out of the dream status into a promised reality within the immediate future.

4—Bring our faculty up to proper strength in both quantity and quality and guarantee that there are sufficient funds to pay the necessary salaries.

5—Through the use of the major part of our contributions, set up a scholarship program superior to many law schools, and resulting in a substantial increase in enrollment, again, both in quantity and quality.

In light of these tremendous accomplishments, the Board of Trustees raised our goal to $60,000 this year, knowing that the generosity of our alumni does not have to take a back seat to any other law school in the country in percentage of alumni participation or size of average gift.

J. M. Ulmer, '08, receives the Fletcher Reed Andrews Distinguished Alumnus Award for 1965-66. Making the presentation is S. T. Gaines, '23, perennial chairman of the awards committee.

Annual Meeting Attracts 400

Nearly 400 alumni, wives, graduating seniors, and guests attended the annual meeting and banquet, May 25. Dean-elect Louis A. Toepfer announced three young lawyers have accepted full-time positions on the school's faculty: Ronald Coffey, of Cincinnati, now working towards a master's degree in law from Harvard; Louis Katz, earning his master's in law from the Univ. of Michigan; and Richard Robbins, now on the law faculty of the Univ. of North Dakota.

Marvin J. Laronge, '28, was re-elected president of the law alumni association. Elected vice president: Victor DeMarco, '33. Re-elected secretary-treasurer: Richard C. Renkert, '50.

Elected to serve as officers of the Society of Benchers, 1966-67: Lynn B. Griffith, '14, chairman; Leroy B. Davenport, '13, vice chairman; Joseph M. Ulmer, '08, secretary. New members of the Society of Benchers inducted at commencement, June 15: John W. Barkley, '14; William R. Daley, '17; Maurice F. Hanning, '19; Hon. Thomas J. Herbert, '20; Kingsley A. Taft, public member.

Dean-elect Louis A. Toepfer did an excellent job as a substitute for the featured speaker, Percy Foreman, of Houston, who was unable to attend due to an unforeseen delay in a major court trial in Hartford, Conn. Dean-elect Toepfer told alumni that plans are progressing for the new law school building to be erected on East Boulevard N.E., near the I.F. Freiburger Library. He said ideas about class sizes and space needs are being developed.

Dean Toepfer drew laughs when he described himself as the only dean with the keys to two law schools—Harvard and WRU—yet every time he opens his house door he is obliged to use a "Yale" key.

Letters

George H. Barnett, '39, Is Family Court Judge

JAN. 7, 1966

Professor Oliver Schroeder, Jr.,
WRU Law School,
Cleveland, Ohio 44106

Dear Oliver:

I have just received the LAW ALUMNI REVIEW (Fall, 1965) and am delighted that your hopes of getting Dean Toepfer have been realized . . . I thought you might be interested in knowing that we have now established a Family Court whose function will be to deal with exclusively in those legal matters involving family relationships. All matters relating to adoptions, custody, modification of previous orders, reciprocal support and conciliation matters have been centered in one department on a one-year assignment.

Because of my many years of involvement in social service agencies, I have been designated as the first Judge of this Court. We are, in addition, studying the feasibility and, hopefully, will put into action a Conciliation Court system with qualified marriage counselors employed by the Court and under the direction of the Family Court Judge.

I am delighted that enrollment is increasing and it appears that the Law School is finally going to emerge from the old building into proper facilities.

My best wishes for continued good health in this coming year.—GEORGE H. BARNETT, '39, Judge, Superior Court, State of California, County of Santa Clara, San Jose.

faculty in 1954. He has been concerned with protective services for the aged, serving as chairman of an advisory committee of the National Council on the Aging. His teaching areas are family law and corporation law.

The University legal counsel acts for the University in such matters as tax exemption of University property, drafting of deeds and contracts, and represents the University in any litigation in which it may be involved.

Dean Toepfer Lauds School's Future

TOEPFER

On July 1, 1966, Louis A. Toepfer assumed the post of dean of WRU's School of Law, replacing Oliver C. Schroeder, Jr., who had served as acting dean after Edgar I. King's retirement in 1962. Prof. Schroeder will continue on the faculty.

Toepfer, vice dean of the Harvard Law School since 1939, taught courses in criminal and admiralty law there. A native of Sheboygan, Wis., he received his B.A. from Beloit College and earned his LL.B. from Harvard after serving with the Navy during World War II. (For additional background data on Dean Toepfer, see LAW ALUMNI REVIEW, Fall, 1965.)

Dean Toepfer feels WRU's School of Law is a remarkably fine school, growing in size and stature. "It's now on the threshold of development, growth and change, as is the entire University."

He is especially interested in reasons why some students decide to attend law school while others decide against it. He plans to make young people aware of the presence of WRU's law school and of the opportunities it has to offer. In this connection, he plans to visit colleges around the country.

While both the government and law firms need more and more lawyers, law schools haven't increased their output very much in the last 50 years, Dean Toepfer noted. "We're turning out only 50 lawyers per million of our population." With more and more financial aid becoming available to them, law students are beginning to look upon law as a profession with a kind of nobility and a chance to serve humanity, he believes.

Referring to legal education as the queen of academic disciplines at a luncheon in his honor in Cleveland, Jan. 6, 1966, Dean-elect Toepfer left this thought with his audience:

"Beget you the sons of your fathers; and God will save the Queen."

Samuel Sonenfield, '38, vice president of the Union Commerce Bank, Cleveland, addressed the last in the series of faculty-alumni luncheons, Wednesday, April 27, at the Mid-Day Club.

A former associate professor at the law school (1951-1962), Sonenfield spoke on—"Who's Afraid of Congressman Patman?" House of Representatives Banking Committee Chairman Wright Patman (D-Tex.) recently attacked a Cleveland bank for its stock-voting practices.

Sonenfield's topic concerned an Ohio state chartered banking institution which voted shares of its own stock that were held by the bank's trust department in "various fiduciary capacities."

Samuel Sonenfield, '38, addressed the last in the 1965-66 series of faculty-alumni luncheons at the Mid-Day Club, April 27.

WRU Law Students Visit Top Court

Eighty-three WRU law students visited the Supreme Court of the United States in Washington in early January.

Highlights of the trip included a visit with Justice John Marshall Harlan of the Supreme Court.

The trip was part of a special program sponsored by the law school. Theme of the week was, "Education in the Practice of the Law."

Explained Oliver C. Schroeder, Jr.,

acting dean of the law school: "All year long, students sat in classrooms and received knowledge of the law. Now they will go into the courts and see the law being practiced."

Students not making the trip to Washington visited municipal, common pleas and appellate courts in Cuyahoga County. All 350 of the law school's students participated in either the Washington or the Cleveland field trips.

Aberdeen P. Hutchison, William V. Valis, Thomas J. Kiss, Elliott H. Goldstein, Jo A. Karasek, Hon. John J. McCormick, (Speaker of the House of Representatives); Mark Talisman (aide to Congressman Vanik), unidentified friend of Mr. Talisman, Alan B. George, Frank S. Merritt, Timothy E. Kramer.

Tribute to Leroy B. Davenport (A Friend Has Passed)

Death is a sad thing. Someone has passed to the great beyond and leaves a void in the hearts of those whom he holds dear and in the hearts of those who treasure his friendship. When it happens to one who had so much to give to others we are deeply moved.

Leroy B. Davenport (Adelbert College, '12, Law, '13)—to many of us throughout the years he was "Dave"—had a warm, sincere personality. You enjoyed seeing him and being with him. He was cheerful, understanding, and radiated goodwill.

He was a fine lawyer. With his outstanding ability he combined eloquence, persuasion, integrity and love of his profession. He was successful and was a senior partner of one of the city's most respected law firms. He was the recipient of many honors for work in and out of his profession, including the presidency of the Cleveland Bar Association and membership in the Society of Benchers.

Success did not affect or change him. He was an inspiration to young lawyers, and gave a ready helpful hand to all who sought his guidance.

He was dedicated and gave invaluable service to the Law School of Western Reserve University, was active on the Board of Governors of the University, and in its alumni associations. In 1965, he received the Fletcher Reed Andrews Outstanding Law Alumnus Award.

He was a real friend and a cheerful companion who brightened every gathering. We shall mourn him and miss him. We are grateful for what he gave to us and left with us.

NOTE: News of the death of Leroy B. Davenport came to us on the day this issue was going to press. There was no time to appoint an appropriate committee. I therefore asked J. M. Berne, Law, '08, a life-long friend of Dave's, to prepare a tribute which I believe expresses the feeling of all of his friends.

—M.J.L.

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport died July 4 in an early morning fire that swept through the Lake Forest, Ill., home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. White, who were rescued from the fire, along with their two children and two women servants. Survivors besides Mrs. White were two sons, John N. and David W. Davenport, six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren.

Alumni Secretary Moves To Community College

Joseph A. Davidson, alumni secretary, Office of Alumni Affairs, Western Reserve University, who received the Master of Business Administration degree at WRU on Feb. 2, took his new degree to a new job Feb. 7, when he became an instructor in the Department of Business, Cuyahoga Community College, Cleveland, teaching Introduction to Business, Advertising and Salesmanship. Davidson holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from WRU awarded in 1959. He joined WRU's Alumni Office in the fall of 1964 as alumni secretary for the School of Law, the School of Nursing and the WRU Parents Association.
