DIRECTORS OF THE CANADA-UNITED STATES
LAW INSTITUTE

Henry T. King, Jr., the United States Director of the Canada-United States Law Institute, is a graduate of Yale College and Yale Law School. A former United States Prosecutor at the Nuremberg Trials, a former General Counsel of the United States Foreign Economic Aid Program, as well as a former Chairman of the Section of International Law and Practice of the American Bar Association, Mr. King is United States Chairman of the Joint ABA (American Bar Association) CBA (Canadian Bar Association) Barra Mexicana Working Group on the Settlement of International Dispute. He has held the position of Chief Corporate International Counsel of TRW, was a founder of the Greater Cleveland International Lawyers Group, and is a former president of the Cleveland World Trade Association. He has published over seventy articles on international legal subjects, including international business transactions, international arbitration, and Nuremberg related topics. He is currently Of Counsel to the law firm Squire, Sanders & Dempsey and Professor of Law at Case Western Reserve University. He has written a book, entitled The Two Worlds of Albert Speer: Reflections of a Nuremberg Prosecutor. Mr. King is a former Chairman and long time member of the Northern Ohio District Export Council. In June 2002, Mr. King was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Civil Laws by The University of Western Ontario.

Chios C. Carmody is the Canadian Director of the Canada-United States Law Institute. He is an Assistant Professor of Law at the University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law, a position he has held since 1999. He received an Honours B.A. from the University of Toronto in 1986; another B.A. from the University of California in 1989; an LL.B. from the University of Ottawa, where he was editor-in-chief of the Ottawa Law Review. He was subsequently called to the Bars of Ontario (1994) and New York (1995). He later received an LL.M. from the University of Michigan in 1997, and an SJD from Georgetown University in 2000. Professor Carmody clerked with the Court of Appeal for Ontario and was in private practice for two years before pursuing his graduate studies. He was also an editor of The Employment Bulletin, published by Canada Law Book. Currently, Professor Carmody teaches in the areas of Contracts, International Trade Law and International Business Transactions.
