ORDER

On June 20, 1990 the Ohio Oil and Gas Association, Inc. ("OOGA") filed a Motion to Intervene in the above-captioned matter as an interested party with the full powers and rights granted by the Board specifically, by statute, and/or by the provisions of Board's rules of practice and procedure. On July 17, 1990, Scott Kell, Acting Chief of The Division of Oil and Gas ("Chief") filed his Memorandum in Opposition to the OOGA's Motion to Intervene. The OOGA filed a Reply on September 14, 1990 to the Chief's Memorandum in Opposition to Motion to Intervene.

Having read the OOGA's Motion to Intervene and supporting memorandum, the Memorandum in Opposition to the OOGA's Motion to Intervene filed by the Chief and the Reply of the OOGA to the Memorandum in Opposition of the Chief and giving consideration to the relevant law:

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED the OOGA's Motion to Intervene as an interested person (as such term is defined in Rule 1509-1-14) in the above-captioned appeal is denied;

IT IS FURTHERED ORDERED that upon conclusion of the hearing for the above-captioned appeal, the OOGA may file a brief with the Board as an amicus curiae for the purpose of fully advising the Board of the law relating to the above-captioned appeal as it applies to the facts presented to the Board at such hearing and the issues formed by the parties to the appeal.
