

Conferences and Symposia

4-10-2003

Canada-United States Law Institute annual conference : Canada/
U.S. security and the economy in the North American context:
April 11-13, 2003: Program Announcement

Case Western Reserve University School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarlycommons.law.case.edu/law_videos_general

Recommended Citation

Case Western Reserve University School of Law, "Canada-United States Law Institute annual conference : Canada/U.S. security and the economy in the North American context: April 11-13, 2003: Program Announcement" (2003). Conferences and Symposia. 629.
https://scholarlycommons.law.case.edu/law_videos_general/629

This Video is brought to you for free and open access by Case Western Reserve University School of Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Conferences and Symposia by an authorized administrator of Case Western Reserve University School of Law Scholarly Commons.

Conference Program and Speakers

FRIDAY, April 11, 2003

8:00 a.m. Registration

8:30 a.m. Purpose of the Canada-United States Law Institute
Sidney Picker, Jr., Founder and Chairman of the Advisory Board, Canada-United States Law Institute
Professor Emeritus, Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Cleveland, Ohio

Conference Introduction and Welcome
Henry T. King, Jr., Conference Chairman and U.S. Director, Canada-United States Law Institute
Professor, Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Cleveland, Ohio

9:00 a.m. The New Reality in Canada/U.S. Relations:
Reconciling Security and Economic Interests and the "Smart Border Declaration"
Presiding Henry T. King, Jr.
U.S. The Hon. Tom Ridge (invited)
Secretary of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C.
Canada The Hon. John Manley, Deputy Prime Minister and Chair of the Canadian Ad Hoc Cabinet Committee on Public Security and Anti-terrorism
Government of Canada
Ottawa, Ontario

10:30 a.m. The Canada/U.S. Economic Relationship: From FTA to NAFTA to what?
Presiding James P. McIlroy, President
McIlroy & McIlroy, Inc.
Toronto, Ontario
U.S. Gary Hufbauer, Reginald Jones Senior Fellow
Institute for International Economics
Washington, D.C.
Canada Derek H. Burney, O.C., President and CEO
CAE, Inc.
Toronto, Ontario

NOON LUNCH

1:00 p.m. The Economy, Security and Sovereignty in a North American Context
Greetings Gerald Korngold, Dean and Professor
Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Cleveland, Ohio
Presiding Henry T. King, Jr.
Speaker The Hon. William C. Graham
Minister of Foreign Affairs
Government of Canada
Ottawa, Ontario

2:00 p.m. The Smart Border: Movement of People - Immigration, Refugee/Asylum and Other Aspects
Presiding Isabelle Dongier
Fasken, Martineau DuMoulin LLP
Montréal, Québec
U.S. Ellen G. Yost
Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, P.C.
Buffalo, New York
Canada Charlotte M. Janssen
Janssen & Associates
Toronto, Ontario

3:30 p.m. The Smart Border: Movement of Goods - Transportation (air, rail, truck and marine) and Customs Aspects
Presiding Jon Groetzinger, Jr., Senior Vice President, General Counsel & Secretary
American Greetings Corporation
Cleveland, Ohio

U.S. Douglas M. Browning, Deputy Commissioner
U.S. Customs Service
Washington, D.C.
Canada Allan J. Cocksedge, Former Assistant Deputy Minister of Customs
Global Public Affairs
Ottawa, Ontario

6:00 p.m. DINNER

7:30 - 8:30 p.m. Perceptions and Realities of North America: What the Polls Say About Canadians and Americans Regarding Security and the Economy. The Public Perception and the Realities Concerning Canada/U.S. Relations
Presiding David Crane
Toronto Star
Toronto, Ontario

U.S. Thomas Riehle, President & COO
Ipsos-Reid - U.S. Public Affairs
Washington, D.C.
Canada Michael Colledge, Senior Vice President
Ipsos-Reid
Ottawa, Ontario

SATURDAY, April 12, 2003

9:00 a.m. The Smart Border: Food Safety and Bioterrorism
Presiding Ronald L. Doering, Former President
Canadian Food Inspection Agency
Gowling Lefleur Henderson LLP
Ottawa, Ontario
U.S. Barry Kellman, Professor and Director, International Weapons Control Center
DePaul University College of Law
Chicago, Illinois
Canada John McNamara, Former President
Archer Daniels Midland Company
McNamara & Associates
Toronto, Ontario

10:30 a.m. Security and the Economy: The North American Computer and Communication Infrastructure
Presiding Chios C. Carmody, Canadian Director
Canada-U.S. Law Institute
Professor of Law
University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law
London, Ontario
U.S. Theodore C. Theofrastous, Chief Commercialization Counsel
Cleveland Clinic Foundation
Cleveland, Ohio
Canada Selma M. Lussenburg, Vice President, Legal Affairs
AT&T Canada Enterprises
Thornhill, Ontario

NOON LUNCH

1:00 p.m. The Defense of North America: NORAD and NORTHCOM
Greetings Ian Holloway, Dean and Professor
University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law
London, Ontario
Presiding Davis R. Robinson, Former Legal Advisor to the U.S. Department of State
LeBoeuf, Lamb, Greene & MacRae, LLP
Washington, D.C.

Speaker Stephen E. Flynn (invited), Jeane J. Kirkpatrick Senior Fellow, National Security Studies
Council on Foreign Relations
New York, New York

2:00 p.m. Preserving the Integrity of Financial Markets in North America
Presiding J. Michael Robinson, Q.C.
Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP
Toronto, Ontario

U.S. Michael E. Mann
Richards Spears Kibbe & Orbe
Washington, D.C.
Canada John F. M. Crean, Senior Executive Vice President, Global Risk Management
Bank of Nova Scotia
Toronto, Ontario

3:30 p.m. Securing the Energy Supply in North America
Presiding Jacqueline Lipton, Professor of Law
Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Cleveland, Ohio

U.S. David J. Manning, Senior Vice President, Corporate Affairs
Keyspan Energy Corporation
Brooklyn, New York

Canada F. Michael Cleland, Senior Vice President, Government Relations
Canadian Electricity Association
Ottawa, Ontario

6:00 p.m. DINNER

7:30 - 8:30 p.m. Security and Freedom - Are the Governments' Efforts to Deal with Terrorism Violative of Our Freedoms?
Presiding Michael P. Scharf, Professor of Law and Director of the War Crimes Research Office
Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Cleveland, Ohio
U.S. David D. Cole, Professor of Law
Georgetown University Law Center
Washington, D.C.

Canada Michael Power
Gowling Lefleur Henderson, LLP
Ottawa, Ontario

SUNDAY, April 13, 2003

8:30 a.m. Comparing the Southern Border to the Northern Border and the Issues To Be Dealt With At Each Presiding T. Bradbrooke Smith, Q.C.
Stikeman, Elliot
Ottawa, Ontario

U.S. David A. Gantz
Professor and Director, International Trade Law Program
University of Arizona - James E. Rogers College of Law
Tucson, Arizona

Canada Marcella M. Szel, Q.C.
Vice President, Strategy and Law & Corporate Secretary
Canadian Pacific Railway
Calgary, Alberta

Mexico Aurielano González Baz
Bryan, González, Vargas y González Baz
Juárez, México

10:30 - 11:30 a.m. Where Do We Go From Here?
Henry T. King, Jr.

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Douglas M. Browning is the Deputy Commissioner of the U.S. Customs Service. He has served on several national and international committees and task forces. Prior to this recent appointment, he was the acting Assistant Commissioner for the Office of Regulations and Rulings. In 1994, Mr. Browning was appointed Assistant Commissioner for the Office of International Affairs. He began his career with U.S. Customs in 1977 when he joined the Office of Regulations and Rulings as a staff attorney, later transferring to the Office of the Chief Counsel, where he served as Assistant Regional Counsel in New Orleans and in Baltimore. Mr. Browning has also served as Senior Counsel for International Enforcement in Washington, D.C. Mr. Browning received his B.A. from the University of Pittsburgh, his J.D. from Hofstra University, and is also a graduate of the Senior Executive Fellows program at the JFK School of Government at Harvard University.

Derek H. Burney, O.C., is President and Chief Executive Officer of CAE Inc., a position he has held since 1999. Prior to joining CAE, Mr. Burney was Chairman and CEO of Bell Canada International. From 1989 to 1993, Mr. Burney was Canada's Ambassador to the United States. From 1987 to 1989, Mr. Burney served as Chief of Staff to the Prime Minister. He was directly involved in the negotiation of the Canada-U.S. Free Trade Agreement. He was the Prime Minister's personal representative in the preparations for the G-7 Economic Summits of 1990, 1991 and 1992. In February 1992, Mr. Burney was awarded the Public Service of Canada's Outstanding Achievement Award, and in July 1992, he was named Officer of the Order of Canada. Mr. Burney received both his B.A. (Hons.) and M.A. degrees from Queen's University.

F. Michael Cleland is the Senior Vice President, Government Affairs, for the Canadian Electricity Association (CEA). Prior to joining CEA, he was Assistant Deputy Minister (ADM), Energy Sector in the Department of Natural Resources Canada (formerly Energy, Mines and Resources). Prior to his appointment as the ADM, he was Director General of the Energy Policy Branch. From 1987 to January 1990, he was Assistant Director, Resource Policy Division in the Department of Finance. Before joining the federal government in 1987, he worked in Nova Scotia where he was a principal at the firm of Cleland, Dunsmuir Consulting Ltd.; was a lecturer in business/government relations at the School of Public Administration at Dalhousie University; and served as the academic editor of Plan Canada, the journal of the Canadian Institute of Planners. Mr. Cleland received his B.A. from the University of British Columbia and an M.P.L. from Queen's University.

Allan J. Cocksedge is an Associate Consultant for Global Public Affairs, where he provides policy advice and representation in the areas of revenue and customs administration, trade administration, and regulatory issues related to transportation policy. He is the former executive vice president and COO of Vista, an information services and business management consulting firm. From 1993 to 1998, Mr. Cocksedge was Assistant Deputy Minister for Customs Operations/Border Services/Trade Administration for Revenue Canada. Prior to his service at Revenue Canada, he served for six years as the Assistant Deputy Minister of Tourism in the Department of Industry, Science and Technology Canada, served for three years as the Secretary General of the Canadian Human Rights Commission, and for two years as Director General of Canadian Employment and Immigration Commission over B.C. and Yukon Territory. Mr. Cocksedge received his Bachelor of Arts (Hons.) degree from the University of Toronto.

David Cole is a professor at Georgetown University Law Center, a volunteer staff attorney for the Center for Constitutional Rights, the legal affairs correspondent for The Nation and a periodic commentator on National Public Radio's All Things Considered. He has litigated many First Amendment cases, including U.S. v. Eichman, which extended First Amendment protection to flagburning. The American Lawyer named him one of the top 45 public sector lawyers in the country under the age of 45. He is the author of several books, including No Equal Justice: Race and Class in the American Criminal Justice System (1999), which was named the Best Non-Fiction Book of 1999 by the Boston Book Review, the best book on an issue of national policy in 1999 by the American Political Science Association, and was awarded the Alpha Sigma Nu prize from the Jesuit Honor Society in 2001. Professor Cole received both his undergraduate and law degrees from Yale University.

Michael Colledge is Senior Vice President Public Affairs and Managing Director of Ipsos-Reid Ottawa Office, where he has served since 1998. Subsequently, he worked in both social and economic portfolios of the federal government. Prior to joining Ipsos-Reid, Mr. Colledge worked as Special Communications Advisor to the Minister of Industry, writing speeches and providing communications and public opinion research advice to the Minister, has held positions of Senior Communications Advisor at Industry Canada and Account Executive at Human Resources Development Canada. From 1986 to 1994, he was responsible for managing public opinion research studies and evaluation studies, the analysis of public opinion data and media coverage and the development of communication strategies at Human Resources Development Canada and the Department of Supply and Services.

John F.M. Crean is the Senior Executive Vice President for Credit and Risk Management at The Bank of Nova Scotia. He is responsible for centralized risk control function within the Bank. Prior to his current appointment, Mr. Crean has held a number of appointments in the Bank, including those of an Executive Vice President, Corporate Banking for the central regions of North America, and Vice President and General Manager of the Toronto Suburban Region, and between 1975 and 1979, he was General Manager, Systems. Prior to joining the Bank, he was an associate professor of economics at Laval University in Quebec. Dr. Crean holds a Ph.D. in economics from the London School of Economics, University of London.

Stephen E. Flynn (invited) is the Jeane J. Kirkpatrick Senior Fellow, National Security Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations. Dr. Flynn, the author of numerous publications, has served as a consultant on homeland security for the Hart-Rudman Commission; was director of the Office of Global Issues at the National Security Council; spent five years, from 1994 to 1999, as an associate professor at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy; and served for three years as a Guest Scholar and a Visiting Fellow at the Brookings Institution. In 2002, Dr. Flynn was appointed to the National Academy of Sciences Panel on Science and Technology for Countering Terrorism in Transportation and Distribution Systems. He is the recipient of many honors and fellowships, including the Legion of Merit, the Coast Guard Academy Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, and an International Affairs Fellowship from the Council on Foreign Relations. Dr. Flynn received his bachelor's degree from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, and an M.A.L.D. and a Ph.D. from Tufts University.

David A. Gantz is Professor and Director of the International Trade Law Program at the University of Arizona, James E. Rogers College of Law, where he served since 1993. He is also Associate Director of the National Law Center for Inter-American Free Trade. Prior to joining the faculty of the College of Law, he spent two years with the U.S. Agency for International Development law reform project in Costa Rica; a year as a law clerk with Judge Charles M. Merrill of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit; spent seven years with the U.S. Department of State as the chief lawyer responsible for Inter-American affairs, and has practiced international trade and corporate law in Washington, D.C. From 1981-93, Professor Gantz was also an adjunct professor of law at the Georgetown University Law Center. He has served as a binational panelist under the trade dispute resolution provisions of Chapters 19 and 20 of NAFTA and is currently serving on a Chapter 11 panel. Professor Gantz received an A.B. from Harvard College and a J.D. and J.S.M from Stanford University.

The Hon. William C. Graham is the Canadian Minister of Foreign Affairs, appointed to that position in January 2002. From 1995 to 2002, Mr. Graham served as Chairman of the House of Commons Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs and International Trade. He has served as Vice-President and Treasurer of the Parliamentary Association of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, and as Treasurer of Liberal International. Before being elected as an MP for Toronto Centre-Rosedale in 1993, Mr. Graham practiced law at Fasken & Calvin in Toronto, and served on the boards of directors of various public and private Canadian corporations. Subsequently, he taught International Trade Law, Public International Law, and the Law of the European Community at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law. Mr. Graham is also past president of the Alliance française of Toronto, and has been honored by numerous organizations for his contributions to French language and culture. Mr. Graham received his Honours B.A. and LL.B. degrees from the University of Toronto and a Doctorate in Law from the University of Paris.

CANADA-UNITED STATES LAW INSTITUTE CONFERENCE: Canada/U.S. Security and the Economy in the North American Context

April 11-13, 2003, Case Western Reserve University School of Law, Cleveland, OH

I will attend the conference to be held April 11-13, 2003, at the Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Enclosed is a cheque for ___$800 U.S. (non-member) ___ $725 U.S. (member). This includes the conference fee, conference materials, and hotel accommodations* at the Glidden House (across the street from the Law School)

Please make cheque payable to: Canada-U.S. Law Institute.

Name _____
Title/Firm/Company _____
Street _____
City _____ State / Province and ZIP / Postal Code _____
Telephone _____ E-mail _____
Fax _____
CLE Credit Yes _____ No _____

For more information, please contact Henry T. King, Jr. Conference Chairman (htk@po.cwru.edu), at (216) 368-2096 or Julie A. Kraus, Conference Coordinator (jak43@po.cwru.edu), at (216) 368-1798.

Registration Deadline: Friday, March 14, 2003.

* For registrants who do not require accommodations, please enclose a cheque for: ___$650 U.S. (non-member) ___$575 (member)
 Reservations at Glidden House are issued on a first-come, first served basis. Late registrants may be placed in an alternate hotel of comparable quality.
 CLE forms for the state of Ohio will be distributed at the Conference. All others can be issued a certificate of participation to present to individual state bar authorities.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Post office will not deliver this card without postage

The Canada-United States Law Institute
Case Western Reserve University School of Law
11075 East Boulevard
Cleveland, OH 44106-7148
U.S.A.

Aureliano González-Baz is a partner in the Mexican law firm of Bryan, González Vargas y Gonzalez Baz. Mr. González-Baz coordinated the firm team advising Canada in the negotiations of the NAFTA; advising Indonesia (in a team with Harvard Law School) in drafting laws for its financial system; and most recently, advising Paraguay in drafting statutes to promote its export industry. He has served as Special Assistant to the Director General of the National Border Program, counsel on international matters to the mayor of Juarez, and has served as director of the Foreign Trade Association and Trustee of the Technological Institute of Monterrey, and chairman of the Mexican section of the El Paso Industrial Development Council. Mr. González-Baz received a Ph.B. from the Instituto Patria, an LL.M. from the Universidad Iberoamericana, and a P.I.L. from Harvard University.

Gary Hufbauer resumed his position as Reginald Jones Senior Fellow at the Institute for International Economics (IIE) in 1998, a position he held between 1992 and 1997. From 1997 to 1998, he was the Maurice R. Greenberg Chair and Director of Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations in New York. Before joining IIE, he was the Marcus Wallenberg Professor of International and Financial Diplomacy at Georgetown University. From 1977 to 1980, Dr. Hufbauer served in the Treasury Department as Deputy Assistant Secretary, responsible for trade and investment policy during the Tokyo Round and the Director of the International Tax Staff. His many publications include World Capital Markets (co-author, 2001), NAFTA and the Environment (co-author, 2000), and Fundamental Tax Reform and Border Tax Adjustments (1996). Dr. Hufbauer holds an A.B. from Harvard College, a Ph.D. in economics from King's College, University of Cambridge, and a J.D. from Georgetown University.

Charlotte Janssen is the principal of Janssen & Associates, an international law practice in Canada specializing in a full range of corporate commercial legal services, including immigration and real estate. Her firm, established in 1996, is headquartered in Toronto and operates in two other locations in Syria and Brazil, and is active in international immigration cases, particularly from the Middle East, Eastern Europe, and China. Prior to the formation of her current practice, she practiced as an associate with Baker & McKenzie, the world's largest law firm, out of both their Toronto and London, UK, offices. In 1992, Ms. Janssen formed a solo practice in Toronto, later becoming the managing partner of Baker & Janssen in 1992. Ms. Janssen received an Honours B.A. from the University of Manitoba, an M.A. from Carleton University, and an LL.B. from the University of Toronto.

Barry Kellman is a Professor of Law and serves as Director of the International Weapons Control Center at the DePaul University College of Law. A prolific author on issues relating to national security, weapons proliferation and terrorism, he served as legal adviser to the National Commission on Terrorism in 2000. He chairs the ABA Committee on Law and International Security and is Chair of the Arms Control Section of the American Society of International Law. Professor Kellman has been a leader in the international campaign to criminalize the misuse of biology. In addition to his work on bioterrorism, he is a legal authority on the Chemical Weapons Convention as lead author of the Manual for National Implementation of the Chemical Weapons Convention, and has served as consultant to the Department of Defense on issues relating to the legal implementation of the Convention, the Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty, and the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. Professor Kellman received his B.A. from the University of Chicago and a J.D. from Yale University.

Selma M. Lussenburg is Chief Regional Counsel for Canada and Vice President, Legal Affairs and General Counsel for AT&T's Canadian operations, a position she has held since 1998. She joined AT&T Canada Enterprises Company as Corporate Counsel in 1997. Prior to joining AT&T, Ms. Lussenburg practiced with the Toronto law firms of Borden & Elliott, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin and the Sydney office of the Australian law firm of Allend, Arthur, Robinson. Ms. Lussenburg is a Canadian representative to the Trade Ministers' NAFTA Advisory Committee on the Resolution of Private International Commercial Disputes. She is also a member of the Advisory Board of the Canada-United States Law Institute. Ms. Lussenburg received a Certificate of Private and Public International Law from the Hague Academy of International Law in The Netherlands, an LL.M. from the Australian National University in Canberra, Australia, a graduate-level Diploma in International Co-operation and Development from the Institute for International Development and Co-operation, as well as LL.B., cum laude, and B.S. degrees from the University of Ottawa.

The Hon. John Manley is Canada's Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance. In January 2002, he was named Deputy Prime Minister of Canada, and appointed Political Minister for Ontario. Prior to August 2002, Mr. Manley served as Minister of Infrastructure and Crown Corporations, and as Chairman of the Cabinet Committee on Economic Union and the Cabinet Committee on Social Union. From October 2000 until his appointment as Deputy Prime Minister, Mr. Manley served as Minister of Foreign Affairs. Following the terrorist attacks against the United States on September 11, 2001, he was appointed to become chairman of a new Ad Hoc Cabinet Committee on Public Security and Anti-Terrorism. First elected in 1988 as MP for Ottawa South, Mr. Manley was appointed Minister of Industry in 1993, and in 1996, he was appointed Minister responsible for the Atlantic Canada Opportunities Agency, Minister of Western Economic Diversification, and Minister responsible for the Economic Development Agency of Canada for the regions of Quebec. Prior to politics, Mr. Manley practiced law in Ottawa with the law firm of Perley-Robertson, Panet, Hill & McDougall. Mr. Manley received his bachelor's degree from Carleton University and an LL.B. from the University of Ottawa.

Michael E. Mann is a partner in the law firm of Richard Spears Kibbe & Orbe, a position he has held since 1996. Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Mann served for seven years as the first Director of the Office of International Affairs at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). During his tenure, he was the principal SEC official responsible for initiating and coordinating the SEC's international capital markets program. Prior to becoming Director of the Office of International Affairs, Mr. Mann served as Associate Director in the SEC's Division of Enforcement, acting as counsel for the Commission in such cases as SEC v. Levine, SEC v. Winans (the "Wall Street Journal" case), among others. Mr. Mann has been the recipient of such honors as the Manual F. Cohen Outstanding SEC Younger Lawyer Award from the Federal Bar Association, Securities Law Committee three years out of law school, and the Chairman's Award for Excellence. A Member of the Council on Foreign Relations, Mr. Mann received a B. A. from Hampshire College and a J.D. from Antioch School of Law.

David J. Manning is the Senior Vice President of Corporate Affairs of KeySpan, with responsibility for public affairs, government relations, internal and external communications, and environmental policy. Prior to joining KeySpan, Mr. Manning was president of the Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers from 1995 to 1999, Deputy Minister of Energy for the Province of Alberta, Canada from 1993 to 1995; before then he was the Senior International Trade Counsel for the Government of Alberta, based in New York City. Previously, he was in the private practice of law. Mr. Manning is Chairman of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce, and is a member of the Long Island Housing Partnership. Mr. Manning received his B.A. and LL.B. degrees from the University of Alberta.

John D. McNamara is president and founder of McNamara and Associates, a consulting firm that practices in the areas of finance, market development, strategic planning and communications. He served as president of the Archer Daniels Midland Company (ADM), the world's largest agriculture company, from 1999 to 2002. Prior to being elected President of ADM, he spent sixteen years with ADM providing leadership to its Canadian operations as President of ADM Agri-Industries, followed by his promotion to Group Vice President of ADM and President, North American Oilseed Processing Division. Mr. McNamara has served as Director of the National Oilseed Processors Association, Chairman of the Canadian Oilseed Processors Association, and Director of the Canola Council of Canada and the Canadian Institute of Edible Oils. Mr. McNamara completed his formal education in Chemical Engineering at Ryerson University in Toronto, Ontario.

Michael Power is a partner at the Ottawa law office of Gowlings Lafleur Henderson LLP, practicing in the areas of privacy, authentication, security, electronic government and Internet law. During his career with the federal government, Mr. Power provided legal and policy advice to the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, Investment Canada, Industry Canada, the Department of Justice and Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat on matters pertaining to information technology, electronic commerce, trade and investment issues. He speaks extensively on privacy and security subjects and has spoken to audiences at events such as the annual meetings of the American Bar Association, the Canadian Bar Association, the American Society for Industrial Security, and the Canadian Information Technology Law Association. Mr. Power received an LL.B. and an M.B.A. from Dalhousie University.

The Hon. Tom Ridge (invited) is President Bush's Secretary-designate for Homeland Security. In October 2001, he became the Homeland Security Advisor to the President. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Ridge was twice elected Governor of Pennsylvania. His accomplishments include spearheading an aggressive technology strategy that helped fuel his state's advances in the priority areas of economic development, education, health and the environment. During his years in the Governor's office, the number of children receiving free or low-cost health care through Pennsylvania's nationally recognized Children's Health Insurance Program increased by 145 percent. Prior to his service as governor, Mr. Ridge served as an assistant district attorney in Erie County, and was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives, serving for six terms, from 1983 to 1995. A decorated combat veteran, Mr. Ridge served as an infantry staff sergeant in Vietnam, earning the Bronze Star for Valor. Mr. Ridge is an honors graduate of Harvard University and received a law degree from Dickinson School of Law.

Thomas Riehle is the President and COO of Ipsos U.S. Public Affairs. He has been a pollster for over fifteen years in Washington and, prior to his current appointment, has served on several Democratic political campaigns, including those of Michael Dukakis and Alan Cranston, and as primary pollster for such diverse groups as Time-Warner, MCI, Microsoft, the Cousteau Society, and the National Cattlemen's Beef Association. Mr. Riehle started his career as an associate editor for Politics Today and as an assistant editor at Harper's magazine. From 1980 to 1984, he held various positions, including serving as the Editor in Chief of Opinion Outlook and as the Political Research Director for the Los Angeles Times. In 1985, he was a senior staff member for Representative Howard Berman of California, and from 1986 to 1987, he served as Senior Analyst at Cambridge Survey Research. Mr. Riehle received his bachelor's degree from Yale University.

Marcella M. Szel, Q.C., is Vice President, Strategy and Law, Corporate Secretary and Member of the Executive Committee for Canadian Pacific Railway, a position she has held since 1993. Ms. Szel leads the Company's strategic planning in the areas of law and corporate governance for the railway's North American operations. The author of numerous papers, she has more than 20 years of direct legal experience with CPR in litigation and administrative law with a focus on transportation. Ms. Szel served as Alberta general and regional counsel for the railway and for other Canadian Pacific companies until she was appointed to the position of Assistant Vice President, Quality Support. Ms. Szel has also served as Chair of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, and currently serves on the boards of the Council for Canadian Unity, the British Columbia Business Council and the Esther Honens Foundation. Ms. Szel earned bachelor's and LL.B. degrees from the University of Alberta.

Theodore C. Theofrastous is Chief Commercialization Counsel for The Cleveland Clinic Foundation. Prior to joining the Foundation, Mr. Theofrastous was an associate with the law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, L.L.P. where his practice focus included high tech and intellectual property law, specifically in the areas of e-commerce, technology transfer, licensing, corporate finance and business counseling in the information technology and life sciences fields. Before entering the practice of law, he spent more than ten years working working as a professional in the field of information technology and data communications. He is also member of the adjunct faculty at the Case Western Reserve University School of Law, where he teaches Conflict of Laws (including Internet Conflicts) and Advanced International and Foreign Legal Research. Mr. Theofrastous received his B.A. from Marlboro College and a J.D. from Case Western Reserve University.

Ellen G. Yost is a partner at the immigration law firm of Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, P.C. Ms. Yost initially practiced corporate law, but since 1991 she has concentrated her practice on business immigration law focusing on the port-of-entry adjudication available to citizens of Canada under NAFTA and on Canadian and European companies sending employees to work in the United States. For the past seven years, Ms. Yost has been the Liaison between the Western New York Chapter of the American Immigration Lawyers Association and the Buffalo District Office of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. A Fellow of the ABA, Ms. Yost is a member of the Council of the Section of International Law and Practice of the ABA and was Program Chair of the Section. She has also chaired both the Immigration and Nationality and the Canadian Law Committees of the Section. Ms. Yost earned a B.A. from Mount Holyoke College, and a J.D. from SUNY-Buffalo School of Law.

Conference Approved for 20.5 hours of CLE Credit

CANADA-UNITED STATES

LAW INSTITUTE

2003 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Canada/U.S. Security and the Economy in the North American Context

April 11-13, 2003

Case Western Reserve University
School of Law
Cleveland, Ohio

The proceedings and papers presented at the Conference will be published in the Canada-United States Law Journal, vol. 29 (Case Western Reserve University School of Law).

Conference Approved for 20.5 Hours of CLE Credit

The Institute is indebted to the Canadian Consulate in Detroit, Michigan, for funding the printing of this program.

Visit us online at <http://lawwww.cwru.edu/academic/CanadaUS/new/default.html>