
Volume 10 | Issue 2

1978

Books Received

Books Received

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.case.edu/jil>

Part of the International Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Books Received, Books Received, 10 Case W. Res. J. Int'l L. 593 (1978)

Available at: <https://scholarlycommons.law.case.edu/jil/vol10/iss2/15>

This Books Noted is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Journals at Case Western Reserve University School of Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Case Western Reserve Journal of International Law by an authorized administrator of Case Western Reserve University School of Law Scholarly Commons.

BOOKS RECEIVED

Civilian Control of the Military: Theory and Cases From the Developing Countries. Albany: State University of New York Press, 1976. Pp. 256.

This volume considers such questions as whether the recent eruption of coups d'etat can be attributed primarily to the weakness of civilian control or whether they can be attributed more to the growing strengths of the armed forces. The examples of civilian control chosen for detailed analysis range widely from developed countries like Finland or Japan, to Chile, a country on the threshold of industrialization, to India and the Philippines, which experienced colonial administration and the imposition of patterns of civilian-military relations designed to ensure the subordination of the armed forces.

Tax Problems of Cultural Foundations and of Patronage in the European Community. By Ignace C. Bouuaert. Deventer: Kluwer Commission of the European Community, 1977. Pp. 107.

The study presented in this work is focused on certain well defined questions formulated by the services of the European Economic Community. It presents a general view of the Community and emphasizes practical rather than judicial applications of the tax laws of the various member states.

New Directions in International Trade. New York: Oceana, 1977. Pp. 371.

This work contains the Acts and Proceedings of the Second Congress on Private and International Law held by the International Institute for the Unification of Private Law held in Rome this year.

International Payoffs: Dilemma for Business. By Yerachmeil Kugel. Lexington, Kentucky: Lexington Books, 1977. Pp. 210.

The 1975 international payoff scandal prompted students of St. Louis University School of Business and Administration to compile their research into a published work. After delineating the various areas and forms of international payoffs, the analysis focuses on the rationale of payoffs from the viewpoint of society, business, and the individual executive. Various studies of business behavior and attitudes are used to illustrate the range of beliefs held by the business community on the subject of international payoffs.

Open-End Investment Funds in the European Economic Community and Switzerland. Boulder: Westview Press, 1977. Pp. 254.

With the entry of the United Kingdom into the European Economic Community in 1973, the opportunity presented itself for a study of open-end investment funds in the enlarged Community. The emphasis of this book is to a large extent based on a series of interviews with, as far as possible, all of the major open-end investment fund groups in the EEC and Switzerland.

Investing in Yugoslavia with OPEC Assistance.

Washington: Overseas Private Investment Corporation, 1977. Pp. 77.

This manual is designed to serve as a reference guide for United States businessmen interested in investing in Yugoslavia. It explains the laws permitting foreign investment, as well as other regulations and practices affecting foreign private investment, the historical background of those laws, and structure of Yugoslav business enterprises and the tax rules applicable to foreign investment.

Analysis of the Extent of Applicability of the UN Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners to Community-Based Supervision and Residential Care for Convicted Offenders. Washington: American Bar Association, Commission on Correctional Facilities and Services, 1975. Pp. 120.

The purpose of this analysis is to compare the provisions and concepts of the Standard Rules and Open Institution Annex to the situation of placement under community supervision or residential care without supervisory confinement.

Dispute Settlement Through the United Nations. Edited by K. Venkata Raman. New York: Oceana, 1977. Pp. 749.

This book is a compilation of some of the major studies published by UNITAR during the past few years on procedures and mechanisms for peaceful settlement of disputes under the United Nation's system. The work is geared to serving the practical needs of diplomats and others who are directly concerned with the handling of disputes.

The International Legal Regime of Artificial Islands. Leyden: Sijthoff. 1977. Pp. 277.

This volume discusses the growing awareness of the state of depletion of our terrestrial resources, of pollution, and of overpopulation, and the need for new uses of the seas which modern technology is making possible.

The New European Patent System. Washington: Seminar Services International, 1976. Pp. 273.

This collection begins with a survey of the future of patent protection in Europe. The papers explain the procedural aspects of European patent applications and patents which differ in form from the national systems, the economic and financial reasons which favor the European system, the growing importance of regulations and decisions of a national and European level in the field of competitive monopolies, and finally, the new regulations on enforcement of rights in infringement proceedings effective throughout the common market.

GET LOST!

When you're looking for quick answers from the Government, When your client needs to know more about his opponent or competitor, When your client's group needs to see what the FBI or CIA have on file about them, When the cause of that accident is locked in a federal agency file somewhere out of reach. . .

A Federal Agency will tell you: GET LOST—But get

FEDERAL INFORMATION DISCLOSURE instead!

(by James T. O'Reilly)

For the first time, in one comprehensive and reliable sourcebook, a complete guide to getting information out of the government's files and protecting your client's right to keep his file information safe from competitors! The costs of trade secret protection don't matter if your client's secrets are being given away; the costs of a piece of information not available to you before trial may be more than you think. In one clearly-written, comprehensive and readable text, you'll find the solutions to getting, using and even protecting information under the Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy Act, and the new Government in the Sunshine Act. As lawyers participate more in federal decision-making and as your clients come to realize their need for government information without long delays and without getting lost in the maze—Federal Information Disclosure is a book for today's attorney.

Some topics:

- * Getting into closed meetings that decide your client's financial future, inside the federal agency.
- * Getting access to the FBI's file on your client. . .
- * Protecting your client's trade secrets from dissemination by federal agencies. . .
- * Finding out competitors' plans and future movements. . .
- * The Freedom of Information Act
- * The Privacy Act
- * Government in the Sunshine
- * Other Federal Disclosure and Secrecy Laws

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

JAMES T. O'REILLY is Counsel for Food, Drug & Product Safety for Procter & Gamble Co. He is the author of eleven articles, in such journals as Business Lawyer, Labor Law Journal, and Virginia Bar News, and has spoken at conferences on the business impact of the Freedom of Information Act. A graduate of the University of Virginia, he has worked as law clerk for an administrative law judge in a large federal agency, and is a member of the Virginia and Ohio Bars.

815 pages, loose leaf, 1977 Copyright, $50.00

To be supplemented annually.

Published and for sale by

SHEPARD'S, Inc.

of Colorado Springs

Post Office Box 1235

Colorado Springs, Colorado 80901

(303) 475-7230

- Please send me Federal Information Disclosure at the $50.00 price plus $1.50 postage & handling. Purchase includes my order for all future upkeep service.
 - Please notify me of availability of future upkeep service.
 - I would like to examine for 30 days without obligation.
 - Have your representative call on me.
 - Charge my Shepard's account number
 - Check enclosed Shepard's pays postage & handling.
 - Bill me Bill Firm

Ship to:

Name

Address

City State Zip

Ordered By

Signature

Orders subject to acceptance in Colorado Springs. Title remains with vendor until paid for in full. Terms available. No carrying charges.

