PREFACE

This issue of the Review presents the third annual Symposium on Taxation. The articles contained in this issue are based upon a series of lectures given at the Third Annual Cleveland Regional Tax Institute, which was held in October, 1960, under the auspices of the Cleveland Bar Association, and with the cooperation of the School of Law of Western Reserve University, and the Cleveland Bar Foundation.

The authors contributing to this symposium have achieved eminence in the field of taxation, and the Law Review Staff is confident that their writings will be of value to the legal community.

The Staff wishes to thank Mr. Herbert B. Levine, Chairman of the Tax Institute Publications Committee, and that Committee for their very considerable efforts in the preparation and editing of this symposium.
