EDITORS' PREFACE

The legal questions involved in job elimination present some of the most serious problems in the labor field today. New opportunities must be found for those members of the working force who are displaced by economic factors beyond their control. This issue's symposium, "Legal Problems in Job Elimination," is a discussion of ways to meet this challenge.

This issue completes Volume 17 of the Western Reserve Law Review. The index and title page for Volume 17 will be distributed with Volume 18, Number 1, which this year will be published in November. As announced in Volume 17, Number 1, the subscription price, effective Volume 18, Number 1, is $7.50 per year.

Finally, the editorial staff of Volume 17 wish success and good luck to Mr. Gillombardo and his Volume 18 staff. The ability and dedication which they bring to the Review should ensure an outstanding volume for the coming year.
